

Book of Revelations of Jesus Christ

Lost is what you did and worthless is what you used to do...

Tell me, what good was it that you chased this world of illusions and lies?

You achieved nothing and all your pleasures were sins!

Damning you to eternal damnation!

What does man achieve by his labor and toil?

Generations come and generations go but the earth and the heavens remain the same

You cannot hurt eternal God and his angels in any way even if you try

So let God control the affairs of this world and the next and put your trust in him and him alone

Perhaps he'll forgive your sins and give you eternity in his Kingdom as angels or Holy spirits

Praise be to God Lord of the Worlds

Lord of Hosts of Heavens, Earths and Hells

Again Praise God always

Glory be to the Martyrs, Saints, Prophets, Apostles, the poor and the needy

The innocents killed in wars started by Satan and his army and his children

The children suffering I have not forgotten

Upon them are assigned merciful Angels who take care of them.

Do not grieve for them for they are well taken care of in heaven

And the disbelievers and the criminals await nothing but hellfire and brimstone

In it they'll burn forever and ever

Not a drop of water for them, their throats will get dried up and they'll never salivate

Enduring everlasting punishment for what they used to do in the material world they considered their heaven

God will never ever forgive them and even make them forget his words of revelations

Of Torah, Psalms, Gospel, Quran and what has been revealed to you my Holy Servant who is humble and kind to all creatures on earth

For you the birds sing in the morning and eagerly await your Holy presence

My chosen Son. My favorite Son. The best of all of creation.

For you is Glory in this world and the next

You'll sit on my throne and judge the wicked and the kindred alike

Preach my words and do not let them hinder you which they do at every step

Through you I'll punish them like I have never punished before in this world which they love so much

That is my promise to you.
